A very-Danforth.
 A pretty home wedding in the presence of only the immediate family was solemnized December 26th at 5 p. m., when Walter James Avery was married to Sara Adna Danforth, at the home of her father, James Danforth. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Merrill C. Ward. The interior of the house was beautifully decorated with evergreens and red everlasting.

The groom is at present in the employ of C. B. Cummings & Sons, a former student at the New Hampshire State College and a very popular young man in Norway. The bride has lived all her life in Norway. She is a graduate of the Norway High School, 1908, and has spent one year at Gubarn Normal School. They will make their residence with the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Laura Hasbickell, at the old homestead on Main street.

The happy couple were the recipients of many beautiful and useful gifts. Susie Kelley spent Christmas in Portland.

Mrs. C. S. Tucker and daughter Carrie spent Christmas with relatives in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Robinson of Rockland spent Christmas with their son, George Robinson.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bell of Portland are visiting Mrs. Bell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Crocker.

Mr. and Mrs. Nat Bennett and son Howard went to Bethel last week to attend the funeral of their cousin, John Haggood.

Olive Libby, who has been teaching at the Pierce school, will teach the winter term at the Chapel school and Genevieve Barker will teach at the Pierce school.

The Ladies' Aid of the Methodist church will meet with Mrs. A. T. Bencher on Tuesday, Thursday Jan. 5, at 2:30 p. m.

Judge Wm. F. Jones and family entertained Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Hunt of Bath, Elizabeth and Agnes Beal, Clara Conner and Blynn Allen at dinner, Christmas.

Frank Young spent Christmas with his parents at his home in Auburn. Since his return he has been sick with the grip and unable to attend to his work at the shoe shop.

Ethel Stevens is sick with scarlet fever. Vena Nelson spent Christmas at her home in China. Walter S. Buck is visiting relatives in Boston, this week. Cyrus K. Chapman of Lovell, has been appointed trial justice. Estelle McKillop has returned to her home in Everett, Mass. Nathaniel Chase spent the holidays at his home in Lewiston. Albion Thorne died at his home in Hartford, Iowa, Nov. 30. He was born in Canton, Oct. 19, 1836. He graduated from Tufts college in 1862, and in Sept. 1865, he was admitted to the bar. Before leaving his native town he was school teacher, superintendent of schools and lawyer. In 1868 he and his family went to Iowa, where he has since resided.

In the town of Bethel carloads of checkers were manufactured for the Christmas holidays. The total output of the factory there was over 800 barrels. Each barrel holds 36,000 ordinary checkers and the 800 barrels contain 28,000,000 single checkers.

WEST PARIS.

Samuel Eugene Hammond.
Death which is always being expected some time is always a surprise and a shock to the nervous system of humanity whenever it does come, and so it was in our latest case, that of the passing away of the well known and respected citizen, Samuel Eugene Hammond, who died late Friday night, Dec. 23.

Mr. Hammond has been in poor health for several years but especially the last six or eight months but after each bad spell would rally and be able to work some. This fall he helped at apple packing some. Early in November he and Mrs. Hammond broke up housekeeping and went to George Jackson's on High street to work for him through the winter, planning to come back to their home in the village in the spring. A week or more before his death he had another bad attack which was very severe but he began to rally again and was sitting up some.

Friday all day and until he retired he felt very comfortable and cheerful. About midnight it was discovered that he had passed away in his sleep without any one's knowledge.

Mr. Hammond was a kind, obliging neighbor and friend, and generous beyond his means. He was born Jan. 8, 1850, in Peru and his parents were Samuel and Ann (Cushman) Hammond. His first wife was Flora A. Swift to whom he was married about the year '71 and who died April 9, 1877, leaving one little girl, Bertha A., now the wife of Jerry H. Cole of West Paris.

In November of the same year he married Lillian I. Noyes of Sumner. To them were given three children, Alphonso B. Hammond, who lives in Vermont; Agnes A., wife of John E. Brock of this place, and R. Merton Hammond, an electric car conductor in Boston. Besides these he has two grandchildren, one, little Myrtle Brock, who lives here, dearly loved her grandfather as he did her.

Mr. Hammond was one of a family of ten children. Of those who survive him are William G. Hammond of Paris and Alma B., wife of Roscoe Tracy of West Paris.

The funeral services were held at the Methodist church, Monday at 2 p. m. Rev. D. R. Ford gave well chosen remarks. A mixed quartet sang two favorite hymns, "Meet Me There" and "We Never Say Goodbye in Heaven." The flowers were very beautiful. A pillow with "Hush" and another with "Father," a beautiful large basket with "Roses" and "Grandpa" and roses, narcissus and pinks, loose flowers, were from the family; bouquets of pinks from Horatio B. Hammond, Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Tracy, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Ames; a holly wreath from friends, Internment took place in the West Paris cemetery. The family have the sympathy of the community.

Albert J. Ricker is "under the weather," and not able to work.

Rev. J. W. Smith recently visited his grandson, Karl Hayes, at J. A. Emmons'.

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Morton spent Christmas with Mr. Morton's mother in South Paris.

The next W. C. T. U. meeting will meet with Mrs. Roscoe Tuell, Thursday afternoon, Jan. 5.

Mrs. E. R. Davis entertained her sister and husband from Lewiston and other relatives for Christmas dinner.

Bertha Emmons came home from Portland last week, and is having a week or two vacation with her parents. Wirt McKenney from Burdett's Business College in Boston, and Earl C. Adams of Portland, are home for the holiday vacation.

Experienced operators wanted in the stitching room of B. F. Spinney & Co., Norway, also inexperienced hands for all parts of the work in the room. These will be taught by a competent instructor. Write or call on Miss Smith.

Several Christmas post card shows were participated in here last Saturday. Mrs. Emily L. Emmons received nearly fifty, which delighted her immensely. Another shower was sent to Mrs. Cora D. Lurvey, who is in the Hebron Sanatorium; also a beautiful post card box from her many friends. Other showers were sent to Mrs. Effie Robinson, also in the Hebron Sanatorium, and Mrs. J. W. Andrews in South Woodstock. A week or more ago, Mrs. Alvina Dennen was the recipient of a big birthday post card shower.

WEST SUMNER.

Those with fast horses are having great fun on the pond. The ice is very thick and clear.

A. Pales and wife of Livermore Falls were at her father's, F. Farfar's, a few days during Christmas.

Mrs. Abbie Bates returned to her home last week after making an extended visit at Paris and Welchville among relatives and friends.

There was a large Christmas gathering and trees well laden with presents for the little folks and many of the adults at the Baptist church, Monday evening. Prayer by Rev. G. W. F. Hill; music by the choir, recitations and the distribution of presents.

FREYBURG CENTER.

Mrs. J. E. Hutchins is much improved from her recent illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Goodridge are at Fred Holt's for the winter.

Dorothy Haley has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. Glee, at East Brownfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Eastman spent Christmas at their old home at Fish Street.

Mrs. E. C. Buzzell has been staying for a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Andrews at North Freyburg.

Walter Smith has been very sick for the past week. He has been cared for by his sister, Mrs. Cora Harriman, of Milford, N. H.

The children had their Christmas tree the last day of school with recitations, etc., which were all very well performed by so young pupils.

Albion Barker spent Christmas with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barker. His sister Sybil will accompany him to Farmington, where he is employed, for a visit.
